Communications: FCC letter came about wide band on our license and Bruce took care of it on the FCC website and got a letter back acknowledging the removal.

Hug-a-tree:

Old Business:

Reimbursement process is status quo, However later in the meeting the problem did arise and the President will be looking into this situation. He asked that the units step up and assist in getting the forms changed.

Phone Calls None

Post Office: Picked up an invitation to the Volunteer Recognition and a letter from TAPCO about an account that h has had no activity for a year. The treasurer will take care of the paperwork.

The motion for SARVAC that was tabled from February was opened by Mike and seconded by Bruce. The motion passed. Bruce made a motion to not pay the SARVAC dues at this time and Mike seconded. The motion passed.

Bigfoot: The dates are set and we are going to have it whether or not the other counties participate.

TMRU brought up a request for reimbursement for Berndt Bittlingmaier for $112.50 for a Symposium in Oregon Libby made a motion to approve the reimbursement and seconded by Penny. The motion passed and TMRU needs to submit a request for the reimbursement

New Business: Karl attended the SARVAC meeting and asked about the dues. He was told that it was for admin fees and donuts. He also covered Cascadia Rising which will take place in June which is a State wide exercise. He also stated that there may be 30 people attending the conference from Iceland.

The SAR Council is going to receive a Group award at the Recognition Brunch that will be on March 12th and Sean will be attending on behalf of the SAR Council.

Adjournment: ESAR is having their 50th Anniversary next month and Libby is asking for any ESAR pictures from over the years. Please get them to ESAR prior to April 3rd.

Sean brought up an incident that happened where several vehicles were parked on a hill in the snow and they slid back into the other vehicle. He suggests that if you have chocks to put some type of pins on the bottom so it will hold.

Meeting was adjourned at 2018 hours.

Respectfully,

A. Keen

Secretary
